MEDICINAL.

To climb that frightful mountain peak, the Matterhorn, a tourist has to hire a regular guide who has spent a life-time in making ascents of this particular mountain. Without him, the authorities will not permit the ascent. It would be suicide. But when a woman suffers from some disease or weakness of her system, her life is in jeopardy. By consulting an incompetent, uneducated person, there is no authority to prevent her from doing so. The derangement of the system is a subject that can only be safely prescribed for by an educated, experienced physician. Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has given a life-time to this study. No physician living has a wider practical experience or greater eminence as a specialist in women's diseases. His "Favorite Prescription" is the most perfect cure for these troubles ever invented. It is the only remedy which reaches and removes the internal source of the difficulty in the true, natural and scientific way. Any woman consulting Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, will receive, free of charge, the professional advice of a skilled specialist. No mere nurse, however excellent she may be, has the knowledge or skill to prescribe remedies for complicated diseases, and no sensible woman will risk her life with so unsafe a guide. Women will find the most valuable knowledge about their own physical being in Dr. Pierce's 100-page free book, "The Women's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It will be sent, postage absolutely free, on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. If a French cloth-bound, embossed binding is desired, send in extra (thirty-one cents in all) to receive the extra cost of this more handsome and substantial binding.

POKER IN WASHINGTON.
A Washington dispatch to the New York Herald, says: The creme de la creme of social gossip is gradually rising to the surface of general publicity as the quiet Lenten season draws to a close, and the limited depths of the milk of human kindness bid fair to be thoroughly skimmed by harsh judging notoriety.
Chatter is heard on every side of a certain poker incident with a curious sequel. It appears that a little game was a popular pastime with a notable group of society women here. These played early and late, earnestly and for high stakes, some winning and some losing heavily. Among the losers was the beautiful wife of a prominent politician, and among the winners the ambitious widow of a distinguished American. The wife emptied her dainty purse, mortgaged her income, and finally, in desperation, played for her jewel casket and its glittering and costly contents. The widow having both luck and practice on her side, acquired the whole lot, and the wife withdrew from the "jolly little way of passing a few hours."
Not very long ago the history of the jewels came to the ears of the prominent politician and his rage was great and active. Without delay he called on the widow and demanded that the valuables be returned or there would be "legal consequences." Tears and prayers availed the widow nothing, and she was constrained to "render unto Caesar" the things that were his wife's. The "debt-of-honor" idea did not impress "Caesar" as applicable to the weaker sex.

BATTLE WITH MOONSHINERS.—A pitched battle occurred in Buchanan county Thursday night near the Kentucky border between seven moonshiners on one side and ten citizens on the other, in which five of the illicit distillers were killed and three citizens wounded, one of whom will die.
The moonshiners murdered and robbed several of the better class of mountaineers until the citizens determined to put an end to the lawlessness. A vigilance committee was organized and put in pursuit of the outlaws. They met the gang of seven moonshiners, who opened fire on them, fatally wounding J. W. Veels. The fire was returned, and a hot battle raged. When the firing ceased five of the outlaws lay dead and three of the vigilance committee wounded. The remaining outlaws escaped. The citizens, in anticipation of another battle, are arming.

Something to Depend On.
Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden III., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Panama could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

Americans are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oakton, Ky., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and find it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels. ON OUR Matting.

We have opened the finest and largest line of desirable matting we have ever shown. The Dingley bill places a tariff of 8c per yard and 30 per cent. advance duty on mattings. This would make a $5 matting cost the consumer just $4 more than at present. While this excessive duty may not prevail, it is a well ascertained fact that all classes of mattings will be materially increased in value in the next two months.

For this reason we have laid in a large stock at lowest prices and will sell our mattings as low or lower than they have heretofore been offered.

We have many other articles in large supply that will be materially advanced under the new tariff. We shall continue to sell while in stock our 48-inch French Serge, blue and black, at 49c. These goods will be worth fully 75c under the new law.

Special values in Japanese Silks at 39 and 49; new glace duffrin Silks, plain Jaffetas in rose, pink, Nile, maize and light blue; Chiffons, plain and fancy, all shades; new lines and extra values in Dress Goods at 25, 39 and 49c; new lines of wash goods; a large variety of new laces and lace all overs in
